

Suggested wording for your will:

“I give the sum of £__ (pounds only) free of all taxes to Emmanuel International Ltd and I declare that the receipt from the office shall be a sufficient discharge to my executors and trustees.”

If you already have a will, you can attach a simple codicil form to it. A codicil is a document used to make simple amendments to your existing will such as adding a charity, changing a gift amount or adding an executor.

We strongly advise you see a solicitor when writing or amending your will.

A Lasting Gift

The mission of Emmanuel International is to encourage, equip and assist churches to serve the poor in wholistic ministry. We are partnering with churches in serving their communities to ensure that our work is sustainable.

Leaving a gift in your will is a valuable expression of gratitude, love and thanksgiving towards God and it can also help us meet the needs of future generations. We want to use the resources we have - our time, buildings and money - wisely in God's service.

Your Will Matters

Making a will and keeping it up-to-date is the only way to make sure your wishes are carried out after your death, giving you peace of mind that you can continue to support your family, friends and causes that you love.

Whatever your age, you should write a will. Without a will, your loved ones could face a lot of work, trouble and expense after your death.

As Christians, we believe that we are God's stewards, entrusted to use His gifts to us for the good of our family and our Christian family. In thanksgiving, we should also take will writing seriously, stewarding what God has given us wisely.

Many Christians give regularly and proportionately from their income.

Why not consider giving a lasting gift from your estate, too?

How We Use Legacies

Emmanuel International is grateful for all gifts we receive, however large or small, and we shall use your gift to make a difference.

Since needs change over the years, we encourage you to leave a gift in your will for the general purposes of Emmanuel International rather than for a restricted purpose. We can discuss possible uses of your gift with your executors when the time comes, bearing in mind your known areas of interest and endeavour to use your gift in accordance with your wishes and interests.

We will acknowledge gifts in whatever way the donor and/or his/her executors feel most appropriate to. Equally, we can make sure that gifts remain anonymous if the donor prefers.

You can be confident that your gift will be used to make a real difference to our ministry.
